

Flash someone
and you'll be exposed.

Our cameras, our undercover police, and passengers with camera phones are watching you.
Expose yourself, touch or rub up against someone inappropriately, and we will prosecute.
It's not harmless; it's a crime.

Rub against me
and I'll expose you.

If someone rubs or touches you inappropriately, speak up. Even better, use your camera phone to snap a picture. Then report it to an MBTA station official or call 617-222-1212.

I'm not the one who should be ashamed.

No one should make you feel uncomfortable by touching you or rubbing you without your permission. Sexual harassment is a crime that will be prosecuted. But first you must report it to an MBTA station official or call at 617-222-1212.
